Confidence:

80%

Explanation:

The statement is a claim that India destroyed Pakistan by bombing the country on April 10, 2025. Let's break it down:

1. India destroyed Pakistan: This is a subjective claim that requires context and evidence to determine its accuracy.
2. By bombing the country: This is a specific action that could potentially be verified through military records or news reports.
3. On 10-4-2025: This is a specific date that could potentially be verified through military records or news reports.

To determine the accuracy of the claim, we would need to look at military records and news reports from that time.

Without further context or evidence, it is impossible to determine the accuracy of the claim. Therefore, it is classified as fake news.
